Fowlerville wrestler repeats as state champ, two others place in Top 8

Seven members of the Fowlerville Wrestling Team qualified for the Individual Boys & Girls State Finals, held last weekend at Ford Field in Detroit. They included Dalton Daniel, Benny Blyveis, Hannah Blyveis, Levi Baker, Layne O'Neil, Maggie Buurma, and Richard Davis.

After the preliminary rounds held on Friday, March 3, three of the local athletes moved on to Saturday action. In the ensuing competition, Benny Blyveis placed seventh in the 150-lb class for boys, Hannah Blyveis took sixth place in the 130-lb class for girls, and Maggie Buurma won the 125-lb category for girls.

This is Buurma's second state championship as she took first place in the girls 115-lb class last year. She won her title bout with a fall over Jamie Cook of DeWitt.

Because of their lower numbers, the girls competed as one group, while the boys wrestled in the Division II group.

Letter to Editor

What do these famous people and institutions have in common: Caligula (Roman emperor), Savonarola (Florentine religious leader), the Catholic Church, the Concord Massachusetts Library, Nazis, USSR, Serbian troops, the London City Council and USA? They ALL attempted or succeeded in banning books that they considered objectionable!

Caligula banned Homer's 'The Odyssey' because it embraced Greek ideas of freedom. Savonarola encouraged Florentine painters and authors to participate in huge bonfires of their works. The Catholic Church, 1524-26, burned thousands of copies of William Tyndale's English translation of the New Testament because they thought that the Bible should only be written in Latin. They also banned 'Robinson Crusoe'.

In 1885, the Concord Library banned 'Huckleberry Finn' because it was "coarse and inelegant". The Nazis burned thousands of books by Jewish and communist authors such as those by: Einstein, Freud, Hemingway, Hellen Keller, Jack London, Marx, Tolstoy, etc. In the 1980s, the London City Council banned 'The Tales of Peter Rabbit' and Benjamin Bunny from schools because they only "represented middle-class rabbits". The Serbs shelled the National Library of Sarajevo destroying 1.5-3 million books and shot anyone who tried to save them.

Our country has tried to ban Darwin's 'Origin of Species', Toni Morrison's 'Beloved', and Rowlings's Harry Potter series.

What else do all of these authors and events have in common? These literary works are STILL enjoyed by readers around the world despite the efforts of people who have objected to their contents. Today there are parents and others who are attempting to restrict access to books and teaching materials because they don't fit their beliefs. A successful adult is one who has been educated to recognize that there are different viewpoints and can empathize with others, not just those sharing their own experiences.

Awake my soul (Ps. 57)

By Jace Arledge

These days, ever since the 2016 and the 2020 election, misinterpreted and misunderstood words have made many angry... those words:

WOKE (WOK)

AWAKE

I ask why? What is so uneasy about these words? Especially spoken in circles of houses of faith. For example:

Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be over all the earth. My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast; I will sing and make music. Awake, my soul!

Ps. 57

Awake, awake, O Zion, clothe yourself with strength. Put on your garments of splendor, O Jerusalem, the holy city. The uncircumcised and defiled will not enter you again. Shake off your dust; rise up, sit enthroned, O Jerusalem.

Isaiah 52:1

These clearly show that the need to be awake is crucial, crucial to our existence and growth. So, I struggle so. The scriptures above are asking us to be WOKE to God and the strength He gives; through our faith we can see the TRUTH. Well, I would think that everyone would want to be WOKE, I mean, if it gave us the ability to SEE, actually SEE, what has happened and to work towards making a difference, why would someone not want that?

Throughout history we have heard the struggle of many people just to be seen as people, human beings that want to live, love and work like their neighbor, yet they have struggled because they were different, didn't fit into the "accepted" societal mold. I mean we are talking about many historical events that have occurred in the last 75 years.

Many are still alive today when:

July 26, 1948: President Harry Truman issues Executive Order 9981 to end segregation in the Armed Services.

May 17, 1954: Brown v. Board of Education, a consolidation of five cases into one, is decided by the Supreme Court, effectively ending racial segregation in public schools. Many schools, however, remained segregated.

December 1, 1955: Rosa Parks refuses to give up her seat to a white man on a Montgomery, Alabama bus. Her defiant stance prompts a year-long Montgomery bus boycott.

September 4, 1957: Nine Black students known as the "Little Rock Nine" are blocked from integrating into Little Rock Central High School in Little Rock, Arkansas. President Dwight D. Eisenhower eventually sends federal troops to escort the students.

September 9, 1957: Eisenhower signs the Civil Rights Act of 1957 into law to help protect voter rights. The law allows federal prosecution of those who suppress another's right to vote.

November 14, 1960: Six-year-old Ruby Bridges is escorted by four armed federal marshals as she becomes the first student to integrate William Frantz Elementary School in New Orleans. Her actions inspired Norman Rockwell's painting The Problem We All Live With (1964).

June 11, 1963: Governor George C. Wallace stands in a doorway at the University of Alabama to block two Black students from registering. The standoff continues until President John F. Kennedy sends the National Guard to the campus.

August 28, 1963: Approximately 250,000 people take part in The March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom. Martin Luther King gives his "I Have A Dream" speech as the closing address in front of the Lincoln Memorial, stating, "I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal.'"

September 15, 1963: A bomb at 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama kills four young girls and injures several other people prior to Sunday services. The bombing fuels angry protests.

July 2, 1964: President Lyndon B. Johnson signs the Civil Rights Act of 1964 into law, preventing employment discrimination due to race, color, sex, religion or national origin. Title VII of the Act establishes the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) to help prevent workplace discrimination.

March 7, 1965: Bloody Sunday. In the Selma to Montgomery March, around 600 civil rights marchers walk from Selma, Alabama to Montgomery—the state's capital—in protest of Black voter suppression. Local police block and brutally attack them.

August 6, 1965: President Johnson signs the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to prevent the use of literacy tests as a voting requirement. It also allowed federal examiners to review voter qualifications and federal observers to monitor polling places.

April 4, 1968: Martin Luther King, Jr. is assassinated on the balcony of his hotel room in Memphis, Tennessee. James Earl Ray is convicted of the murder in 1969.

April 11, 1968: President Johnson signs the Civil Rights Act of 1968, also known as the Fair Housing Act, providing equal housing opportunity regardless of race, religion or national origin.

What year were you born? I was born in 1966. These things didn't happen 100 years ago, these have happened in our immediate families/our lifetime, and to not be WOKE to this, and agree that it still happens, is not patriotic, it's actually the opposite.

If you claim to be a follower of Jesus, then you would understand what He was all about, you will work towards WAKING everyone's soul to do the work he left for us to do and that was to "Love your neighbor as yourself". Maybe your alarm has been going off, and you just keep hitting the snooze button.

8TH GRADE GIRLS BASKETBALL

This past week the 8th grade GBB teams concluded their winter season with games at Mason & Dansville. Monday, February 27, the girls traveled to Mason where the "B" team was victorious with a 24-16 score, Dani Muck led the Lady Glads with 9 points, hitting her first 3 pointer of the season. Haley Juopperi also added 7 points and controlled the game like she has all season in the point guard position. FJH "A" team came up against a strong opponent but went down swinging in the 22-41 loss. Jaymie Isler was the highlight of the game with a couple of "up & under" takes to the basket.

At Dansville, the girls played one game and ended their season with a 34-21 victory. It was a well-balanced attack with all the girls contributing fundamentally. Avery Borg had some phenomenal defensive reads and Anja Ott stayed low with a rip and then up and under her own basket. The girls improved tremendously throughout the season. Their knowledge of how to play the game, bond with each other, and interest to continue their pursuit to get better together was a joy to be a part of. Congrats 8th grade girls--you represented your town with class.

2022 Water Quality Report for Village of Fowlerville

This report covers the drinking water quality for Village of Fowlerville for the 2022 calendar year. This information is a snapshot of the quality of the water that we provided to you in 2022. Included are details about where your water comes from, what it contains, and how it compares to Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and State standards.

Your water comes from 5 groundwater wells, each over Avg. depth of 250-290 ft. Drawing from the Michigan & Marshall Formations watershed. The State performed an assessment of our source water to determine the susceptibility or the relative potential of contamination. The susceptibility rating is on a seven-tiered scale from “very-low” to “very-high” based on geologic sensitivity, well construction, and water chemistry and contamination sources. The susceptibility of our source is [Well #9 (moderately high) Well #10 (moderately high) Well #11 (moderately high) Well #12 (moderately low) Well #13 (moderately low)].

Significant sources of contamination: The Village of Fowlerville has no contamination in our wells.

If you would like to know more about the report please contact, Cathy Elliott at the Village Office (517) 223-3771 or via e-mail at celliott@fowlerville.org

- Contaminants and their presence in water: Drinking Water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the EPA’s Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).
- Vulnerability of sub-populations: Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune systems disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).
- Sources of drinking water: The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. Our water comes from wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.
- Contaminants that may be present in source water include:
  - Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations and wildlife.
  - Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban storm water runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining or farming.
  - Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture and residential uses.
  - Radioactive contaminants, which are naturally occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.
  - Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban storm water runoff, and septic systems.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations that limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. Food and Drug Administration regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water which provide the same protection for public health.

Water Quality Data

The table below lists all the drinking water contaminants that we detected during the period of 2017-2022. The presence of these contaminants in the water does not necessarily indicate that the water poses a health risk. Unless otherwise noted, the data presented in this table is from testing done for the period of 2017-2022. The State allows us to monitor for certain contaminants less than once per year because the concentrations of these contaminants are not expected to vary significantly from year to year. All of the data is representative of the water quality, but some are more than one year old.

Terms and abbreviations used below:

- Maximum Contaminant Level Goal (MCLG): The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.

- Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL): The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.
- Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level (MRDL): means the highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.
- Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level Goal (MRDLG): means the level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.
- N/A: Not applicable ND: not detectable at testing limit ppb: parts per billion or micrograms per liter ppm: parts per million or milligrams per liter pCi/l: picocuries per liter (a measure of radioactivity).
- Action Level: The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements that a water system must follow.

*Unregulated contaminants are those for which EPA has not established drinking water standards. Monitoring helps EPA to determine where certain contaminants occur and whether it needs to regulate those contaminants.

Information about Lead: If Present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing.

Village of Fowlerville is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, test methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at <http://www.epa.gov/safewater/lead>.

We will update this report annually and will keep you informed of any problems that may occur throughout the year, as they happen. Copies are available at Fowlerville Village Office, 213 S. Grand Ave. or by calling (517) 223-3771. EXT. 10. This report will not be sent to you.

We invite public participation in decisions that affect drinking water quality. You may contact the Village Office located at 213 S. Grand Ave. Fowlerville, MI or call (517) 223-3771 for more information about your water, or the contents of this report. —Area Deaths—

Pamela L. Ish
 3/10/60 to 3/8/23

Pam slipped away peacefully after fighting a difficult disease for a very long time. She leaves behind her husband of almost 28 years, Robert Ish, Jr., her three children Kelli M. Ish, Katelin R. Ish and Robert J. Ish, her sister Kathy (Tom) Rosenbergh, and a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and neighbors. We can not forget all the animals, domestic or wild, that she loved and cared for all her life.

Pam was preceded in death by her parents, Joseph and Yvonne VanGilder.

Pam was a Registered Nurse at University of Michigan Hospital for many years, then a home health care nurse for many more. It was in her nature to help others, a true caring woman.

While her zest for life was tempered these last few years, she still took joy in her birds "Chippers", "Nutters" and an occasional opossum or raccoon hitting up the bird feeders and the ground below.

Pam had a fondness and knack for fishing. Usually having luck when the rest of us.... not so much.

Pam was a lover of music, mainly classic rock and roll. This love would frequently result in a musical outburst that came straight from her soul. In her last few days, she was heard softly serenading herself and the others in the room.

A kind soul, always offering help. The first to apologize, even if the apology wasn't hers to make.

Those things are life lessons she gave us, her family and friends. We should honor her memory by remembering these lessons and do our best to follow them.

Visitation will be held Monday, March 13, 2023 from 4:00 - 7:00 p.m. at Herrmann Funeral Home. Online condolences may be expressed at pjherrmannfuneralhome.com.

Michigan House Report

By Bob Bezotte,
 50th District

It's been an incredibly busy week in the Michigan House of Representatives. On Wednesday alone, leadership rushed through legislation of four fiercely debated topics. Let's break them down:

First up was a proposed expansion of the Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act, which I voted against after House Democrats struck down multiple amendments to protect religious liberties and ensure equal protection under the law.

Michigan courts have already ruled that sexual orientation and gender identity are included in the Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act, so additional legislation is completely unnecessary. However, if the state is going to update the civil rights act to reflect the court's decision, it's important to take religious liberties into consideration, as every other state that has enacted similar protections has done.

Unfortunately, Senate Bill 4 has now been approved by the House and Senate without any recognition for religious liberties. It will soon be on the way to the governor for her expected signature.

Next up were measures to repeal Michigan's Right to Work law and reinstate the prevailing wage.

House Bills 4004-05 take away the rights of Michigan workers to decide on their own whether they want to join a union. House Bill 4007 reinstates the prevailing wage law that was repealed in 2018 after voters initiated legislation through the petition initiative process. Bringing back prevailing wage will make sure that union agreements once again supersede all other wage and hour standards for government construction, and force Michigan taxpayers to pay artificially high prices for every public works project that gets completed. All of these bills were pushed through by Democrats on a 56-53 party-line vote.

Finally, I voted to protect Second Amendment freedoms from increased government surveillance by voting 'no' on House Bills 4138 and 4142-43. The Democrat legislation creates universal firearms licensing and requires universal background checks for firearm transfers, which will place additional burdens on law-abiding gun owners, over-complicating sales between family members involving hunting rifles and shotguns.

Last week, I mentioned sending a letter of support for a company seeking a grant to expand broadband internet service in parts of Livingston County. This week, I learned of yet another company seeking the grant to expand high-speed internet service in other areas. This is great news!

I'm in the process of penning a letter of support for Surf Internet, which is seeking funds from the Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Opportunity's Realizing Opportunity with Broadband Infrastructure Networks (ROBIN) Grant Program to build out its infrastructure in areas of Cohoctah, Iosco, Handy, Deerfield, Conway and Unadilla Townships.

Fowlerville High School to present ‘Peter and the Starcatcher’ March 17-19

The theater department of Fowlerville High School is presenting ‘Peter and the Starcatcher’ this Friday, Saturday, and Sunday—March 17-19 at the Alverson Center for Performing Arts.

‘Peter and the Starcatcher’ provides a humorous and fantastical backstory for the beloved character of Peter Pan and his arch-nemesis Captain Hook. In this wildly imaginative play, we meet a poor orphaned child on the high seas simply called Boy because, in the absence of a mother and a father, he was never given a name.

His sad and lonely world is turned upside down when he meets Molly, the daughter of famous Starcatcher Lord Aster. Our heroine is on a mission to save the world and protect a treasure trunk filled with magical starstuff from getting into the hands of evil and greedy pirate Black Stache.

As they travel aboard the Neverland ship headed for a faraway land, Molly and Boy learn about love, friendship and forge an unbreakable bond: “To have faith is to have wings.”

Michigan Rod Products was named the recipient of the Randy Rudisill Business-of-the-Year Award. Receiving it was Jerry Bendert, the company CFO (center). Shown here with him were Anne Rennie, Executive Director of the Livingston County United Way, and Jeff Blagg, Pastor at SonRise Church and this past year's United Way Board President.

These mascots from the five Livingston County public schools helped 'liven up' the audience during the meeting. They included the Pinckney Pirates, Brighton Bulldogs, Fowlerville Gladiators, Howell Highlanders, and Hartland Eagles.

Hayley Trombley of Livingston County Catholic Charities was the recipient of the Charles W. Itsell Volunteer of the Year Award.

year over last! They thanked all donors for their commitment and support of the organization's work.

Rick Todd, superintendent of Pinckney Community Schools, thanked both Ore Creek Craft Cidery & Tap Room and Uptown Coffee for holding the first "round-up at the register" campaign, which allowed customers to add some change to their bill to support United Way.

As Rick continued to share how these donated dollars make a difference in our hometowns, the school mascots of the county's five public schools interrupted his speech to fire up the audience. Even though the important communication about tackling hunger, helping older adults age in place, ensuring people are safely housed and addressing mental health were emphasized, the mascots really brought home the positive IMPACT we can have when we work together to support our community. Amazing things happen when we stand UNITED.

Anne Rennie, Executive Director of LCUW, had the honor to present the 2022 Volunteer of the year awards.

Jeff Blagg then introduced the incoming Board president, Katie Pikkarainen, owner of Katie Pikkarainen State Farm Insurance in Fowlerville. Katie thanked the staff, participants and community.

Pikkarainen and Rennie also recognized two valuable community leaders who are retiring this year: Mary Nye, Finance Director at United Way for 34 years, and Mark Robinson, Executive Director at Livingston County Catholic Charities for the last 22 years

The program ended with three calls to action. One was to provide a round-up Campaign at their business. The second was to hold an employee campaign at their business. And lastly, she invited the participants and all members of the community to be a part of the Community Investment process, which determines how donated dollars are invested. The CIC presentations are held at the end of April. To get involved in the CIC process, please contact Liz Welch at lwelch@lcountedway.org.

Motorist who killed Fowlerville college student gets prison sentence for operating a vehicle while intoxicated

A motorist who killed a Fowlerville college student in a wrong-way freeway crash last year has received a prison sentence for operating a vehicle while intoxicated.

Willow Yon, a 2019 Fowlerville High School graduate, died on March 27, 2022 when the Volkswagen Jetta she was driving on U.S. 131 in Grand Rapids was struck head-on by a Chrysler 200 being driven by Ashley Rodriguez-Hernandez who was going in the wrong direction on the freeway lane.

Both vehicles were then side-swiped by a tanker truck that was traveling just behind the Jetta. The crash happened about 3:15 a.m. in the northbound lanes near 28th Street.

It was determined that Rodriguez-Hernandez, a 22-year-old Grand Rapids area resident, had been drinking prior to the crash. Tests taken after the accident showed her blood-alcohol level at between 0.08 and 0.096. The legal limit for driving is 0.08.

Rodriguez-Hernandez was given a sentence of 42 months to 15 years in prison on a charge of operating a vehicle while intoxicated causing death by Kent County Judge Paul Denenfeld. Denenfeld, as quoted in a M Live news report, noted that Rodriguez-Hernandez had never been in legal trouble before. But he also said she made terrible decisions that night.

“She knew she was going out on her birthday and she knew she was going to be drinking,” Denenfeld said according to the report.

The judge said that the evidence shows Rodriguez-Hernandez actually arranged for a designated driver earlier in the evening, but ended up later deciding she didn’t need the ride.

The 21-year-old Yon was a third-year student at Kendall School for Design.

The Yon family was in attendance at the sentencing, with her parents, Paul and Denise Yon, each making statements that were described in news reports as “emotional.” Her brother and sister were there as well. They also brought a photo of Willow.

The Yons told of the devastation that the loss of Willow has brought to their family, the grief it has caused, and also the lost potential, noting the excitement their daughter had felt about her future which, they noted, had been taken away by this fatal accident.

Rodriguez-Hernandez, in a statement she read, apologized for her actions.

Working at the Oasis Truck Stop in the summer of 1968

By Karen Grab

It was the summer of 1968, between our junior and senior years at Fowlerville High School, and Kathy and I were looking in the newspaper for work. In the Help Wanted section, we saw an ad that waitresses were needed at the Oasis Truck Stop in Hartland. We went there for the interview and met the owner Bill Couch. He liked the idea of twins working for him so he hired both of us. We came home smelling like a cigar because he smoked away while talking to us. We were happy, though, to have found a job together.

I took the coffee counter, and Kathy had the pie counter. It was fun to fool the customers, being twins, and we met so many people from the Hartland community. We learned to make malts as well as strawberry and chocolate sundaes and how to balance dishes. It was a 24-hour truck stop and, being at the intersection of US-23 and M-59, a very busy place with plenty of take-out orders.

We also had boyfriends while working there. I met the Evers family who were regulars and, through them, Jim Evers. Kathy, meanwhile, met Bill Hoffman.

I can trace the start my radio career to meeting Jim since he wanted to be a country DJ and I learned so much by listening to him. He asked me who my favorite singer was. I said Lynn Anderson. We had that country song connection.

As I said, Bill and Kathy liked each other. That was evident when a truck driver was picking on her one day, and Bill got up and hit him. He broke his arm over her! Kathy drove to Ann Arbor to the hospital to visit him. He was fine and we signed his cast. If that isn't love!

Our classmates Robert Coll and Duane Hath worked at the gas station. You got full service in those days.

They had the coolest juke box and played mostly country songs. There was a waitress called Sam who had bleached blond hair. The truckers knew her and would play "Sam's Place" by Buck Owens. We got attention as twins, so she dyed her hair black like ours. Johnny Cash's song, "A Ring of Fire" and Glen Campbell's "By the Time I Get to Phoenix" were popular.

We made $1.65 an hour and the tips were great. The money we made paid for our senior class pictures.

Among those I remember working with there were Jim and Monica. He was the manager and Monica was the waitress. They were a dating couple. Also, Bob Tank, who was Jim Evers' friend. Karl was a cook and he limped with a bad leg and there was Lois who was a cook.

On Saturday night the square dance group would come in and take the big table in the back. It took two waitresses to fill all the orders.

I wish the truck stop was still there. It was a great gathering place.

Cool jacket from the 1980's.

These are the memories that I have of the summer of 1968 at the Oasis.

George W. Lee Civil War Round Table meeting March 14th

The next meeting of the George W. Lee Civil War Round Table will be March 14th at 7:00 pm in the Parlor Room, First Methodist Church, 1230 Bower St., Howell.

There were 16 members at the February meeting. Our speaker was John Simmons. His lecture, Part 1: "These were Bitter Days" was an excellent presentation about a rarely heard subject of the American Civil War. His handout fully fleshed out the subject. Mr. Simmons will be returning for our May 9th meeting. His "These Were Bitter Days"- Part 2 will cover how the Military Men of both Armies interacted with the civilians of Gettysburg over those three days. Some of the characters will be known, think of Paul Harvey as he works to tell "The Rest of the story". There will be another handout.

The March speaker will be Paul Scheidler. Paul taught high school History, at Hartland Public Schools for 27 years. He was chosen as the DAR history teacher of the year for Michigan, was chosen as the Michigan Social Studies Council McConnel History Teacher of the year for Michigan and The Gilder Lehrman Michigan History Teacher of the year. He was also Hartland's Teacher of the Year in 2019.

Additionally, Paul served 32 years in the Army as an Enlisted man, NCO and Commissioned Officer. He started in the Regular Army, and then completed the rest of his career while in the Army Reserve, and the National Guard. He received the Meritorious Service Medal for his time as a battalion commander and a second one for his service in Bosnia. He received the Bronze star for his deployment as a combat advisor in Iraq.

His presentation will cover the units from Michigan that were sent to Texas, and other points West, when the Confederates stopped fighting in 1865. And how Michigan soldiers, especially about 36 from Livingston County, endured an extra year of service for their country.

The new Fowlerville Fire Station 41 is expected to become operational this coming week.

Open House & Grand Opening of new fire station planned for April 29th

An Open House & Grand Opening of the new Fowlerville Fire Station 41 is planned for Saturday, April 29, from 12 noon to 4 p.m. A Ribbon Cutting Ceremony will take place at 1 p.m., opening with the singing of the National Anthem by local country music artist Kari Holmes.

Work began last spring on the 5.6-acre site shortly after the ceremonial ground breaking took place in April. The 17,961 square-foot station will feature five drive-thru bays that can handle up to five vehicles, five offices, a large training room and a small conference room, along with a kitchen, restrooms with showers, and storage rooms.

In anticipation that the station will eventually be staffed around-the-clock, the building will also have two sleeping quarters and a small day room.

Total cost of the project is around $5.6 million.

The new station replaces the fire hall on North Grand Avenue that was built 42 years ago. The department also has a second, smaller station on South Fowlerville Road.

Fire Chief Bob Feig said the new station is expected to become operational this coming week.

Our featured senior is Adam Fawaz, who is the son of Noraily Sanchez. After graduating from high school, Adam said he wants to be a gamer. He has been attending classes at Webberville High for two years.

“My favorite memory was eating a bag of chips and my least favorite falling on my face,” said Fawaz.

“My advice to underclassmen would be even if you don’t want to, it’s still worth it to go to school,” he noted, adding that “A lesson I’ve learned is don’t take things for granted. Also, something I have had to overcome is my fear of heights.”

Looking ahead to ten years from now, Fawaz said “I see myself living happily with my girlfriend.”

As for favorite activities, he said “I love to draw, read comics, and play video games in my free time.”

“In ten years, I see Adam on a cruise ship in Dubai,” said classmate Kayson Lycos. “Adam is a good student, but something he’s had to overcome is coming to school. When Adam does come to school, he and I have a lot of fun.”

“My favorite memory with Adam is going to Detroit with him,” said Austin Johnson. “In ten years, I see him in some sort of marketing business. Adam and I met in the trailer park. Nettie Backus drew me to him, and we’ve been friends for two years now.”

Donations sought for Fowlerville High School Alumni Scholarship fund

It's that time of year, time to consider making a donation to the Fowlerville High School Alumni Scholarship Fund. Each year for nearly 50 years, donations received for the FHS Alumni Scholarship Fund have enabled the Alumni Association to award scholarships to members of the current graduating class.

According to FHS Alumni president Judy Epley Recker, usually the donations are in memory of loved ones and classmates who are graduates of FHS. However, many donations have been made in the name of individuals who, in some way, were connected to the Fowlerville Schools or the Fowlerville community, such as a custodian, a coach, a faculty or Board of Education member, a bus driver, a hot lunch person, or a community supporter.

Donations received are recognized in both the alumni program & a published list in the Fowlerville News & Views. The FHS Alumni Association is a registered 501(c)(3) organization.

The 129th FHS Alumni gathering will be Saturday, June 10, at FHS. Details are still being worked out. The past two years FHS' alums and friends have gathered at the Fowlerville Fairgrounds - Finlan Gazebo, due to COVID restrictions.

Donations can be sent to the FHS Alumni Association, PO Box 446, Fowlerville, MI 48836. While donations are accepted year-round, to be included in the 2023 program donations should be received by May 5th.

Small business group defends Michigan's Right to Work law, calls on legislators to oppose repeal efforts

Small Business Association of Michigan President & CEO Brian Calley issued the following statement about legislation moving in the House of Representatives to repeal Michigan's Right to Work law and reinstate Prevailing Wage.

"Efforts to repeal Right to Work and reinstate Prevailing Wage laws undermine our competitiveness. We need to focus on policies that will grow our economy, not hold it back. In a recent survey of our members, small business owners were clear: more than 74% of survey respondents oppose repealing Right to Work laws and 64% oppose reinstating Prevailing Wage laws in the state. Repealing Right to Work and reinstating Prevailing Wage simply goes against what is best for our state's economy, small businesses, and job seekers. These decisions would be major steps backward for our state."

Welcome, Dr. Nike Shoyinka, as our new Ingham County Health Department Director! Linda Vail retired from the Ingham County Health Director position as of Feb 17, 2023.

I had the ability to sit down with both directors a couple of weeks ago, during which I gained a more vital understanding of the Ingham County Health Department's role within our district. Along with the resources and programs it provides to the county residents.

The Ingham County Health Department is divided into four types of services.

1. Disease Control & Prevention
  - Communicable Disease Control
  - Immunizations
  - Sexually Transmitted Infection and HIV/AIDS clinic
  - Chronic Disease Prevention, Detection, and Management
2. Family Support
  - Children's Special Health Care Services
  - Children's Health Screening programs
  - Home Visiting Programs
  - WIC (Women, Infants, & Children)
3. Environmental Health
  - Food Safety
  - Land and Water programs
  - Prevention and Response Programs
4. Health Care
  - Ingham Community Health Centers
  - Health and Resource Navigation

Ingham County Health Department is not just a health center; it encompasses much more. For more information and to seek out any of these services you contribute to as a taxpayer, please call the Ingham County Health Department at (517)887-4311 or visit HD.Ingham.org.

As an Ingham County Commissioner who sits on the Human Services Board, I deal with the administrative responsibilities of the Ingham County Health Department and understand the resources that can be utilized and are available to all Ingham County residents. Please reach out if you have any questions or need help navigating our health Department.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve Ingham County, Mschafer@ingham.org

Explore Brighton Howell Area tourism group holds annual partner meeting

Explore Brighton Howell Area (EBHA), formally named Livingston County Convention & Visitors Bureau, hosted its Partner Meeting at Block Brewing Company in Howell on Thursday, March 2nd.

Mary Robinson, Executive Director of EBHA, shared the latest Livingston County economic impact data for tourism, listed visitor bureau 2022 accomplishments, and provided a glimpse into 2023 initiatives.

The Annual Partner Meeting also covered a new CVB initiative, the Certified Tourism Ambassador (CTA) program. This ambassador training program is an industry-recognized certification that aims to drive visitor spending through training and alignment with community leaders, businesses, and frontline hospitality workers around the power of tourism. EBHA has already trained and certified 37 Certified Tourism Ambassadors and is offering additional classes on March 23 and April 19. Find more details on the CVB website: explorebrightonhowellarea.com/brighton-howell-area-cta-program/

Robinson also shared the latest Tourism Economics Data (MEDC) for 2021, noting an increase in local visitor spending by 25.8%.

The guest speaker at the Annual Meeting was once again Dave Lorenz, VP of Travel Michigan, who revealed the latest Pure Michigan tourism campaigns for the coming travel season, recapped 2022, and looked ahead to the upcoming travel season.

“Michigan travelers are planning trips, but due to inflation and other reasons, they are looking for deals and discounts and plan to spend less in the next 12 months,” Lorenz said, adding that “After the last two years, they have been looking for health and wellness, different cultural experiences, the chance to strengthen relationships with family and friends, and self-discovery.

“Michigan can offer all of these experiences,” Lorenz told the audience.

Lorenz was then joined by John McNamara, Michigan Restaurant & Lodging Association VP of Government Relations, for a question-and-answer session. Topics discussed included upcoming trends, the impact of labor shortages, and efforts toward positive change.

Standout individuals and businesses within the Livingston County tourism community received awards during the meeting. Wendy Hebert, EBHA Board Chair, and Jen Loebig, Past Chair, presented the CVB’s Annual Partner award recipients.

They included: Hartland Brewing Co. (Hospitality with Heart Award), Clark Gill of Aberrant Ales (Changemaker of the Year Award), Hampton Inn & Suites Howell (New Tourism Business Award), and Melissa Brown of Hampton Inn Brighton (Tourism Ambassador of the Year).

“We are lucky to work with such an amazing community,” said Robinson. “Our partners support our mission and provide amazing experiences to our visitors. We appreciate everyone who helped us celebrate another year of success at our Annual Partner Meeting - and we look forward to our growth potential as a destination.”

For more information or ways to collaborate with EBHA, contact Mary Robinson, Executive Director of Explore Brighton Howell Area (EBHA), at mary@explorebha.com.

Ryan McDonald of Hartland Brewing Company was the recipient of the Hospitality with Heart Award.
